Skinny Skribbles

Around And About Town

With C. F. (Skinny) SKIRVIN

And then George Angle brought down my good friend, Dr. R. A. Cushman, medical director and superintendent of the Mendocino State hospital at Talmage, and he said he thought he could find a place for me. The doctor, for the sessions of the California Medical association in Pasadena, some of the findings of which touch my heart, because they give to us fellows, who are approaching four score years, credit with having some intelligence. Now that may be a concession, or scientific deduction, but either way I think a lot more of the doctors than before, and I always thought a lot of them to begin with. Dr. Leonard J. Brunie says "it is a great mistake for man or woman to retire just because of passing a certain birthday." If you have become disheartened on account of advanced age, read Dr. Brunie's report and you'll feel like a colt. It was encouraging to see the Dr. Cushman looking so pert, and better still to get the report that Mrs. Cushman, attorney, was professionally active and well. You see I like them both, one a little better than the other, but don't tell the doctor of my differentials.

Mother just didn't pin a rose on me, but a good friend sent one so red that it must have occurred to her to send along some support with it. So far I have not been able to decide which I like the best, but try and take either away from me. You know I think my friend who sent that rose must also have caught up with some fellow who had been rummaging through a vineyard bearing Pinots, Gamai Norr and Meunier grapes. Anyway, I'm more than pleased.

A surgeon splits a boy's head so his brain will grow. Now there's a system which has unlimited possibilities.

Irvin Cobb is suffering from writer's cramp. Most of my clientele is suffering from cramps from what I write.

Well, I have begun to find out something about week-ends. Been home for three of them, and now yearning for the wide open spaces.

In 1937 more than 78,000 persons came to California from drought stricken states seeking employment. What this state needs is more rain in others.

Skipping dividends is too much like the kid playing hooky from school. "Ye ain't gittin' anything for the safety deposit box."

A man can be just about what he wants to be in this country, but in some countries a man can't only be what the dictator tells him to be. And yet we have a lot of people who tell us to throw the constitution out the window.

Bob Brown, not knowing how long I am to remain a shut-in, drops a volume of "Red Manners" on the covers, and there says he's got to go to Los Angeles. And after reading that book I don't care where he goes.

In about six months all you will hear about the LaFollette party is that he started it. LaFollette is like the discontented member of a church. When he can't have his way he wants to start a new denomination.

Honesty as a policy doesn't appeal to me so strongly, if only policy is the actuating motive. There is a transcendent principle above that. Everyone knows instinctively it is wrong to steal. The same instinct tells you if you get something which does not belong to you through some one's mistake it is honorable and right to restore it. What provoked this comment was a story brought to me by a business man. One of his clerks had made an error and gave to a customer an extra dollar in change. Easily an error, as new crisp currency has some Scotch tendencies and sticks together like brothers. The cash register at the close of business disclosed the shortage. Here's the meat of the story. The customer who received the two-dollar bill.

BULLETIN
MEXICO CITY, (P) — After clashes in which several persons were wounded students of the University of Mexico today reoccupied university buildings which had been seized by socialists hostile to the institution.

MEXICO CITY, (P) — Several persons were wounded today in a clash between students and several hundred members of an organization known as "socialist youth" who had occupied building of the University of Mexico.

The "socialist youth" force, armed with pistols and knives, seized buildings of the university and its preparatory school early this morning and resisted efforts of police and firemen to eject them.

Enraged students who discovered the seizure of the buildings shortly after 8 a. m. made several forays trying to recover them, but were met by pistol fire from the roof tops. A number fell, wounded.

The students desisted after Rector Chico George counseled calm, asserting hunger would compel the invaders to yield.

The socialists were due to occupy four buildings—the main university building, the preparatory school and the schools of commerce and law—without much opposition because most of the student body was taking its spring vacation.

The word spread quickly, however, and angry groups of students gathered. Police and firemen helped the rector to restrain the most fiery of the students who wished to attack immediately.

The disorders came after long attempts by socialists to deprive the university of its autonomy guaranteed by law, bring it into the federal system and introduce socialistic education.

Rector George and students had strongly opposed these attempts.

The clash was the newest manifestation of unrest following the March 18 expropriation of 17 British and American oil companies.

Associates of the agrarian leader, General Saturnino Cedillo, charged today that President Cardenas was trying to "drive him" to rebellion by attacking the public from the administration's troubles.

Owen St. Clair O'Malley, the British minister, tentatively set next Monday for his departure.

Meanwhile, efforts were underway to adjust United States interests in the 17 British, American and Netherlands companies which President Cardenas expropriated on March 18.

Motorist Crashes Through Plaza

William Howard, 27, of Long Beach, drove his automobile across the Orange plaza at 1:55 Sunday morning and received a reckless driving citation from the police department as a result.

Howard was driving west on Chapman avenue. His car broke the chain surrounding the plaza at both the east and west side. His headlights were so badly damaged, the police compelled him to stay in Orange until sunrise.

Payment Made for Turks Taken in '12

OREGONIA, Ohio. (P) — Raymond Ross is now willing to "forget" those 15 turkeys which disappeared from his father's farm in 1912.

Oregonia's postmistress turned over to him today a letter from Father Divine, New York negro cult leader, enclosing $15 for the turkeys. He said two of his "converts" had confessed stealing the fowls from the Ross farm.

Body of Fresnan Taken From Snow

FRESNO, (P) — A search of more than two months was ended today for S. E. Shipley, 64-year-old Fresno lumberman. His body was found by searchers in the snow covered timber belt region 60 miles east of here, near Shamer Lake.

He had left March 9 for a lumber company mill above the lake to determine the condition of a watchman, unheard from for three weeks. Shipley died of exposure, officers said.

WIDOW FACES ARREST OVER DEPOSITION

Order Issued on Complaint of Notary

A widow who refused to appear for a deposition when charged with fraud in her late husband's $60,000 estate was ordered arrested today and brought before a notary to testify.

In what is believed the first such proceeding on record here, Sheriff Logan Jackson was ordered to arrest Mrs. Catherine L. Newman of Seal Beach.

The order for her arrest, based on affidavits by Mrs. Birdie Swanwick, the notary, and E. R. Simon, attorney for a brother and sister who are contesting the will of the late John William Newman, was signed today by Presiding Superior Judge James L. Allen. Mrs. Newman is to be brought before Mrs. Swanwick this afternoon.

Bernard Newman and Julia N. Smith, brother and sister of Mr. Newman, filed suit last week to break the will, charging Mrs. Newman was never legally married to the wealthy landowner because she had a husband living when they went through a purported marriage ceremony in Riverside.

Mrs. Newman was cited for a deposition, but did not appear Saturday. C. E. Sprague, her attorney, objected to the deposition on grounds it was "premature," and refused to produce his client.

Mr. Newman's will left all his property to Mrs. Newman, who is attacked in the will contest.

KERN SLAYER SOUGHT HERE

Possibility that the robber-slayer of Mathias H. Warren, 73, real estate broker and father of Dist. Atty. Earl Warren of Alameda county, is hiding out in some Orange county "jungle camp" was seen today when the sheriff's office was asked to cooperate in a search for the killer.

Bakersfield police are seeking a man from 35 to 40 years of age, five feet 10 inches in height and weighing about 160 pounds, they informed local officers in a telephone bulletin. They indicated he may hide out in one of the Southern California counties in "cheap barrooms, gambling places or jungle camps."

A systematic search of the county was ordered by Sheriff Logan Jackson today.

BAKERSFIELD, (P) — Crime experts of three counties combed Bakersfield today for clues in the baffling slaying of Mathias H. Warren, 73, wealthy real estate operator and father of Earl Warren. (Continued on Page 2, Col. 8)

Supreme Court Favors Labor in Decisions

WASHINGTON, (P) — American workmen learned from the Supreme court today they were entitled to protection of the National Labor Relations Act if they strike because of an unfair labor practice by their employer.

In another decision of interest to labor, the tribunal directed the federal circuit at Philadelphia to show cause why it should not permit the National Labor Relations Board to recall an order directing the Republic Steel corporation to reinstate 5000 striking workmen.

Justice Roberts delivered the ruling that workmen who strike still retain the protection of the labor act if its provisions barring

Farm Bureau Speaker Hits Railroads

Ray Wiser, president of the California Farm Bureau federation, at last has found the secret of how to get two speeches quoted instead of one.

He hands out one speech in advance to newspapers—climbs on the platform and gives a different one!

Wiser pulled the rather unusual stunt here Saturday, as he arrived to speak to 6000 persons gathered in Irvine park for the county farm bureau's twenty-first annual picnic.

FARM BUREAU SPEAKER HITS RAILROADS

Denies Farmers Are Over-Subsidized

Ray Wiser, president of the California Farm Bureau federation, at last has found the secret of how to get two speeches quoted instead of one.

He hands out one speech in advance to newspapers—climbs on the platform and gives a different one!

Wiser pulled the rather unusual stunt here Saturday, as he arrived to speak to 6000 persons gathered in Irvine park for the county farm bureau's twenty-first annual picnic.

One speech, generalizing about a "solid front for agriculture," was handed to C. J. Marks, secretary of the bureau, for distribution so that the single address delivered after newspaper deadlines, could be reported that afternoon.

Then, with a wave of the hand, Wiser smiled "that was just a press release. I may not talk roads, propaganda, the single tax, about the same thing at all."

He didn't. He took slaps at railroads, labor agitators and Henry Ford. Ranchers, he said, may be forced out of business if railroads' pleas for higher rates are granted. Margins of profit, Wiser said, are too narrow now.

He said the single tax, which would be an increase in the present 36 per cent of farm income which must go for transportation.

"Farmers," he declared, "are not subsidized. Industry is subsidized far more than agriculture."

Repeal of the sales tax—with the single tax substituted—got a verbal beating-up as Wiser declared city property taxes would be decreased 52 per cent, but that land taxes as a whole would be raised 200 per cent and result in government confiscation of farm land.

Class-consciousness urged by labor agitators, the speaker warned, may spell the end of democracy. Rules for protection of agriculture, as labor has its rules, were advocated by the state federation president.

"Henry Ford," said Wiser, "does not practice what he preaches." He told his audience Ford labels it "poor economy" to limit agricultural production, but limits his own production when auto sales drop.

Hinrichs, captain of the victorious baseball team of farm center men from south of the Santa Ana river, which defeated a northern aggregation, Cypress-Magnolia center won the attendance contest, with West Orange taking second. Both were given prizes by L. P. Halderman, bureau president.

Deputy Prosecutor Turns Down Mining Stock in Court

Deputy Dist. Atty. Robert Gardner doesn't want a flock of mining stock, thank you.

Warren E. Case, on trial today before Superior Judge H. G. Ames on nonsupport charges, offered it to Gardner but was turned down.

"I got room and board and $100 a month in stock," he told the deputy. "You can have it, if you want it."

Gardner didn't want it. Judge Ames heard evidence, then postponed his decision in the case to Aug. 19 on condition Case pay $10 a month for the support of his 12-year-old son.

Free Press Called Dictatorship Ban

KANSAS CITY, (P) — Mrs. Joseph P. Price, former president of the Canadian Women's Press club, told the General Federation of Women's clubs here today that "as long as there is a free press there can be no dictatorship."

"The freedom of the press is the main expression of a free democracy," Mrs. Price of Vancouver, Canada, said in an address prepared for delivery before the federation's convention.

"We have only to note the growing enslavement of the press of Europe to stand on guard for that freedom on this continent."

TREASURER'S OFFICE CAGED WITH STEEL

County Erects Steel Barrier Around Funds

The bandit business slumped badly today, as a thug-proof barrier sprang up around the once-poorly-protected county treasurer's office.

A $3000 bullet-proof, bandit-proof cage was getting its finishing touches in the office of Treasurer T. E. Stephenson, whose pleas for better protection finally were heeded by county supervisors.

The device is expected to pay for itself within a short time, with a one-third reduction in robbery insurance rates in effect because of the cage.

Enclosing half of the treasurer's office and protecting the giant vault, the cage is made of bullet-proof steel and contains windows two inches thick which bullets cannot penetrate.

Metal trays under windows make it possible for employees to pass money under the glass, but prevent anyone outside from reaching beyond the barrier. Gun ports are located at strategic points, and a row of spikes and charged wires prevent access to the top of the cage.

Installation of the cage is the second modern protection device to be installed recently in Stephenson's office.

An $1150 electric burglar alarm system, complete with "electric eye" which rings the alarm when anyone approaches the vault, paid for itself in reduced insurance rates within three months.

Moore, owner of the Moore building at Fourth street and Broadway, who charges the clothing firm moved a great part of its stock and business to Fourth and Fifth streets to escape a lease agreement whereby Moore was to get 6 per cent of gross sales in lieu of rent.

Moore, represented by Harvey and Harvey and Franklin G. West, asks $15,000 damages, reformation of the lease so he gets 6 per cent of sales at both Vandermast stores, and $749.24 for remodeling of the basement at Fourth and Broadway. LONDON, (P) — Prime Minister Chamberlain today announced a realignment of his cabinet, sending Sir Kingsley Wood, minister of health, to replace Viscount Swinton, secretary of state for air, target of charges by all parties that Britain's aerial rearmament was lagging.

SMOULDERING ASHES RAKED FOR MISSING

Twelve Rescued or Leap to Safety

ATLANTA, (P) — Fire which started in a basement kitchen killed 25 persons at the Terminal hotel early today, left 13 injured and an undetermined number of others missing.

More than a dozen persons were rescued or leaped to safety. Reports to firemen and police indicated from 50 to 65 persons were registered in the 62 room, five-story brick and frame building.

A high wind fanned the flames. City sanitary crews were set to work in mid-morning removing the debris. With tractor power barred because of the danger of pulling down the walls, engineers estimated two days would be required to clear out the wreckage.

Many of the dead were found in the charred timbers and steel which dropped from the roof, carrying away the burning floors. Police Chief M. A. Hornsby expressed belief "10 or 15 more" bodies would be found in the mass of debris piled up on the street level.

Speed with which the flames gained headway amazed witnesses. Police Lieut. J. T. Lasater said he was five blocks away in a patrol car when he saw the fire shoot up, and that by the time he arrived smoke veiled all the building.

"I couldn't see them," he said. "But I could hear people on the upper floors crying out and praying."

Mayor William B. Hartsfield said the hotel was of a construction type no longer permitted under the city building code, but had been remodeled somewhat from its original status.

The fire was described by Fire Chief O. J. Parker as the deadliest in the history of Atlanta. Collapse of the roof, plunging debris through charred floors to the basement, cut off hope of survival for many who were trapped. Only the walls were left standing.

Five persons jumped. One man, unidentified, who leaped from a fourth floor window, died of a broken neck. Three other men were suffocated.

A dozen hose lines still poured water through shattered windows at dawn. Ambulances were lined up in the plaza of the Southern Railway station across a street from the hotel, waiting for the discovery of other victims.

Firemen described the death of what was apparently a family, father, mother, young son and daughter.

The woman was found sitting in a chair. The little girl knelt by the bed. The man and small boy were lying on the bed.

'I WON'T STOP' INSISTS Foe OF GAMING SHIP

SANTA MONICA. (AP)—Blocked at least temporarily by a court restraining order from interfering with operations of the gaming ship Rex, city officials insisted today the fight has just begun.

"I will never stop fighting the gambling off our shores until we finally have driven the Rex away," said W. W. Milliken, public works commissioner.

Mayor Edward Gillette said the restraining order, issued yesterday by Superior Judge Orlando Rhodes, came as a "complete surprise," but that he was studying its legality and was "determined to stop the gambling operations of the Rex."

Lawyers for A. C. Stralla, also known as Tony Cornero, manager of the craft, contended before Judge Rhodes that it is more than three miles off shore and beyond the city and county jurisdiction.

District attorney's investigators and other officers raided the Rex last Friday night, taking in custody 62 men on gambling charges and four on suspicion of kidnapping an investigator. They later were released on bail.

Hearing on whether the injunction shall be made permanent will be held in Judge Rhodes' court tomorrow.

That removed the cloud on everybody who had anything to do with the cash register, and even the machine itself might have felt better. There is plenty of good old "rugged honesty" with us every day, but we seldom hear of the finer things in life. The uglier ones make the first page.

Sound Must Be Standardized

DETROIT, Mich. (American Wire)—The day when an auto purchaser will know exactly how quiet a car is without driving it is predicted by A. P. Fugill, engineer here. This will be done by adoption of a standard meter for measuring sound in uniform terms, he believes.

"At present the final judge of acceptability as regards noise specification is the purchaser's ear, at best not very consistent."

"There is little question that both purchaser and manufacturer would benefit by the adoption of reasonable noise specifications obtained in rational manner and based upon concrete data on the noise performance of standard equipment," Fugill declared.

The high court consented to pass upon a decision of the California supreme court approving a corporate reorganization.

V. S. McCLATCHY DIES IN S. F.

SAN FRANCISCO. (AP)—V. S. McClatchy, 80, member of a widely known newspaper family in California, died here yesterday shortly after calling a physician when he became ill.

Born in 1857, the year his father established the Sacramento Bee, McClatchy became half owner of this newspaper and, later, the Fresno Bee. He was publisher of the Sacramento Bee from 1884 until 1923, when he sold his interests to his late brother, C. K. McClatchy.

He was secretary and manager of the old Pacific Associated Press from 1894 to 1900 and served as a director of the Associated Press from 1910 to 1923.

Labor Complaints After S. P. Dropped

WASHINGTON. (AP)—The national board dismissed for lack of jurisdiction today five complaints filed under the railway labor act against the Southern Pacific company by the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen.

The complaints involved changes in working conditions under existing agreements. The board suggested the Brotherhood's grievances should be considered by the national railroad adjustment board.

A complaint issued by George I. Copeland, representative of the state controller's office, charges him with three counts of petty theft and one count of falsifying an application to get WPA relief. Copeland said Wire's wife was steadily employed while he received relief funds. He was arrested by Deputy Sheriff G. F. McKelvey and bail was set at $500.

$75,000 Betting Swindle Charged in L. A.; Two Held

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—Police held two men today in connection with the swindle of an unnamed Baltimore society woman in a $75,000 race track wager.

The first arrest was made when Albert Harvey, 32, changed a $10,000 bill at a bank last Saturday.

Detective Lieut. L. C. Perry said the bill was one of five stolen in the Baltimore swindle.

Informing by Harvey that he had been asked to change the bank note by Harry Baxter, alias

Harry Dudley, 36, police and federal agents raided the latter's apartment early yesterday and took him into custody.

Both men were booked on suspicion of violating the national stolen property act.

Baxter had been engaged to marry a young Los Angeles resident this week, police learned.

They declined to identify the Baltimore woman, who was reported to have been persuaded by two or three men to make a $75,000 bet through them.

Polly Rowles Mum On Romance Rumor Clara Phillips Will Ask Divorce

PITTSBURGH. (AP)—Polly Rowles, returning from New York where she played in the Mercury theater production of Julius Caesar, today dismissed with cryptic comment a report that she would marry Frank C. Snyder, Pittsburgh manufacturer.

Questioned by her mother about reports that she would wed, Miss Rowles shrugged: "Well, there are a lot of things you don't know."

ANAHEIM. (AP)—Clara Phillips, who killed Alberta Meadows with a hammer in one of California's most sensational criminal episodes, has applied to the board of directors of the California Institution for Women for permission to divorce Armour Phillips so that she may re-marry.

Lotus H. Loudon, chairman of the board, said Mrs. Phillips made her application from Pittsburgh, Pa., where she is now living. He said the board would grant her permission to file for divorce, but that she would have to apply again for authority to re-marry.

The name of the man she intends to marry was not learned.

Two men were held for questioning, but several vagrants were dismissed as possible suspects after a brief interrogation.

Police Chief Robert powers said robbery was believed to have been the motive for the brutal bludgeoning of Warren in his office home Saturday night.

Police broadcast a state wide request for the apprehension of a poorly clad, unshaven man seen loitering in the neighborhood Saturday.

Warren, his skull crushed by a lead pipe the killer apparently threw in an adjoining yard, was found yesterday by William A. Reed, an employee.

The aged victim had been sitting in an old-fashioned arm-chair, his back to the kitchen door, when he was assaulted. Strewn on the floor were business letters and a broken pair of spectacles, while a trail of blood spots led to the bed where Warren's body, fully clothed, lay beneath the covers.

As late as 8 o'clock Saturday night, police learned, Warren was alive and happy, receiving a rental payment from one of his many tenants. Since his wife left for a visit with her family in Oakland, he had been alone.

Upon learning of his father's slaying, Dist. Atty. Earl Warren dispatched criminologists from his Alameda county office, augmented by others from San Francisco. He planned to follow them here today.

The veteran prosecutor discounted the possibility a revengeful former convict may have tried to strike at him through his father.

Farley Steps Into Pennsylvania Row
NEW YORK. (AP)—Openly entering into the controversial Democratic political situation in Pennsylvania, James A. Farley, postmaster general and chairman of the party's national committee, today announced his support of Tom Kennedy for governor and George H. Earle for senator.

Farley said he did so because he thought the struggle within the ranks of the Democrats "imperils the success of the . . . party in the November election."

Kennedy, now lieutenant governor, has the backing of John L. Lewis, head of the committee for industrial organization, and of U. S. Senator Joseph F. Guffey, (D., Pa.).

BOXING REVIVAL DUE AT O.C.A.C. TONIGHT

Rejuvenated Boston Red Sox Annex American League Lead

Copy-Wrighted

By PAUL WRIGHT

Dick Miller Returns To Competition Soon

It won't be long now until Dick Miller of Huntington Beach will be breaking into headlines again. Dick, who holds two out of eight official fly-casting championship titles, will compete at Oakland July 1-3-4, and when the whirl of reels and the swish of plugs halt, he should be "in the money." At Buffalo, N. Y., last summer he tossed the distance fly 183 ft. and the salmon fly 158 ft. 8 in. for international records.

Boxing Revival Lures Throng to '101' Arena

If boxing doesn't click in its revival opening at the Orange County Athletic club tonight, it won't be the fault of the Highway 101 arena promoter, M. J. (Bud) Levin.

Levin will spare no expense in trying to succeed with the simon-pures where Sam Sampson and George Stewart, his predecessors, failed. Through Matchmaker Leonard (Frankie) Lockhart, who has many good contracts with southern arenas, Levin will bring here the best amateurs the southland offers. Local talent, however, will be given preference. Lockhart has lined up some fine prospects in Ben and Al Garcia and Jack Malone, among others. Popular prices will prevail.

Reaching Deep Down Into Sports Barrel

Man Mountain Dean, who used to spring his bone-breaking "broad jump" at the Orange County Athletic club, has given up wrestling temporarily to run for the Georgia state legislature and to make a comedy picture in Hollywood with Joe E. Brown. Dean always was billed as a Georgia hill-billy, but Brooklyn's home town, and his legal name is not Dean, but Frank S. Leavitt.

STARS OBTAIN OUTFIELDER

With the Pacific Coast league in the midst of one of its best seasons in years, teams today were still jockeying for winning combinations.

After San Diego was dumped out of first place yesterday by losing a twin bill to Hollywood's Stars, 8 to 2 and 3 to 0, President Bill Lane announced Cedric Durst, outfielder, and one of the most popular players in the Padre lineup, would finish the season in a Hollywood uniform.

Lane transferred Durst's contract to the Stars to make room for the return of Rupert (Tommy) Thompson, Padre outfielder who was drafted by the Chicago White Sox at the end of the 1937 season. Durst will be in a Hollywood uniform for the Sacramento series this week.

Portland moved into first place by splitting with Los Angeles, 5-4, 3-2.

Wuxtra! Golf Ball Lands In Pocket Of Del Monte Fan

DEL MONTE. (AP)—Carl Fricki of Altadena didn't know whether to feel insulted or not yesterday when his brassie shot landed in the pocket of a spectator, who unknowingly walked off with the ball.

Several spectators called the matter to the attention of H. P. Eastman of San Gabriel, who traced the ball. He said he had felt a slight impact, but didn't know it was a golf ball.

YESTERDAY'S STARS

JOE CRONIN, Red Sox—Hit triple and single, drove in one run and scored two in 4-3 win over Senators.

JOHNNY DICKSHOT, Pirates—His single in 11th drove in winning run for 4-3 victory over Cubs.

BEAU BELL, Browns—His homer and two singles led attack in 4-1 win over Tigers.

PEPPER MARTIN, Cardinals—Hit pinch single in tenth for winning run in 12-11 conquest of Reds.

be one of the strongest eleven in the Eastern conference next fall, but they will be one of the best dressed. Coach Bill Cook definitely is sold on the idea of purchasing golden satin pants with scarlet jerseys, and already has been in a huddle with sporting goods dealers. Franklin Guthrie, this department's advertising assistant, will serve as official scorer for the Santa Ana City Softball league which opens another season inside the Municipal bowl tonight.

LAWRIN AND STAGEHAND, DAUBER 'TOPS'

By ORLO ROBERTSON
NEW YORK. (AP)—Lawrin, the big three of the three-year-old Stagehand and Dauber—there's turf division.

Lawrin won the Kentucky Derby; Stagehand came through in the Santa Anita Derby and Handicap, and last Saturday Dauber entered the select group with a galloping score in the muddy Preckness—richest race of the year exclusively for three-year-olds.

Dauber has bowed to both of his rivals but on his performance in the Preckness he appears worthy of giving them a race when they hook up again, probably in the Arlington Park classic late in July. The blazed-faced chestnut from William Dupont, Jr.'s Focal catcher farm dropped a half length decision to Stagehand in the Santa Anita derby and trailed Lawrin by a length in the Kentucky classic after Stagehand had been forced out by illness.

When they meet again, it should be a real horse race. Both Stagehand and Dauber are strictly stretch runners but Lawrin can set a burning pace or come from behind as he did in the Kentucky derby and the Flamingo stakes at Hialeah Park. Stagehand and Lawrin prefer fast tracks, while Dauber has the added advantage of being one of the turf's top ranking mudders.

Dauber's next start will be in the $50,000 added Belmont stakes at Belmont park June 4.

Saint Girl Tennis Shanks in Fifth Straight Victory

Santa Ana High school's girl tennis squad took a clean-sweep of the singles and doubles matches against Laguna Beach High school last week-end for its fifth consecutive victory over Orange county teams.

Singles—Pat Emison (SA) def. Connie Means (LB), 6-0, 6-1; Marjorie Mize (SA) def. Betty Harrington (LB), 6-0, 8-6; Delberta Morrison (SA) def. Marilyn Plavan (LB), 6-1, 6-0; Patsy Miller (SA) def. Mary Babcock (LB), 6-2, 6-3.

Doubles—Audrey Van Beek-Ruth Ann Lesteron (SA) def. Willoby Whitmore-Jeanne Warner (LB), 7-5, 6-2; Lillian Breaux-Adena Green (SA) def. Phil Ketchum-Barbara Hutton (LB), 6-1, 6-1.

GARDEN GROVE NETTERS WIN

Garden Grove High school's tennis squad defeated Tustin's Tilters, 20-5, in a recent Orange league match on the losers' courts.

Bob Marshall of Tustin and Dick Hardy of Garden Grove put on a spirited exhibition in first singles, Marshall winning 3-6, 6-4, 6-4.

City Softball Openers Slated

ALLIANCE AND M. E. SOUTH NINES CLASH

Twin Bill Tonight Sends Ward Club Against S. A. Elks

Opening defense of their Santa Ana City Softball league championship, Co-Managers Gene Hitt and Walt Jordan send their Montgomery Ward players against Darwin Scott's Elks at 9 o'clock in the second game of a double-header inside the Municipal bowl tonight, barring rain.

The first game, slated for 7:30, pairs the veteran M. E. South nine with a new entry, Alliance Mutual Insurance company.

Doubleheaders, as usual, will be played on Mondays and Thursdays at 7:30 and 9 o'clock. Frank Guthrie of The Journal sports staff will be the official scorer.

Treesweet Products, another of three new members of Justice of the Peace Kenneth Morrison's six-team circuit, will play Ward's defending champions at 7:30 Thursday night, and Alliance Mutual Insurance will battle the Elks tractor company in the 9 o'clock nightcap.

There will be no opening ceremonies tonight other than the doubleheader, President Morrison said.

SAINTS FIRST IN TRACK QUALIFYING

By PAUL WRIGHT
Coming events cast their shadows before.

Santa Ana's Saints, track-and-field champions of the Citrus Belt Prep league, were basing in additional glory today as a result of their feat in leading all teams at Riverside Saturday in sectional qualifying for the Southern California finals in Memorial Coliseum, Los Angeles, Saturday afternoon.

Shattering three school records, Coach Reece (Pinky) Greene's Walnut street prep hung up 35 points, comfortably outpacing Chaffey with 22 and Excelsior with 17½ in the varsity division. Athletes from the Citrus Belt Prep league, including San Gabriel Valley leagues, competed in this particular meet.

Howard Elliott, in running second to Joe Wolfe of Tustin in a 50.7 sec. quarter-mile, was clocked in 51.6, erasing Jim Daner's 51.8 from the Santa Ana record books. Byram Bates leaped 21 ft. 10 in. for a Class B Saint record in the broad jump, and Jack Grandos was second in the Class C 660 for a new school mark of 1:32.5.

Wendell Tedrow high-jumped 6 ft. 3½ in. to approach Paul Jacques' school record of 6 ft. 4½ in. Class A. He may break Jacques' mark in Los Angeles Saturday inasmuch as he barely missed at 6 ft. 5 in. at Riverside. Bob Maddock tossed the varsity shot 48 ft. 9¼ in. for a first place, and the Saint relay team of Jerome Duffy, Don Warhurst, Howard Elliott and Wayne Piper coasted to a victory in the 880-yard relay in 1 min. 32.4 sec.

Melvin Barron was second to Peterson of Pomona in a blanket finish of 15.6 sec. in the 120-yard high hurdles. Eugene Haden was 41 ft. 3¼ in. for a 3rd place in the top-step-jump. Duffy timed in 10.1, was third in a 9.9 century, and Warhurst, clocked in 22.2, was second in a 21.7 furlong. Both sprints were won, as expected, by Huntington Beach's sensational Eddie Morris.

Bob Frias was fifth in the 880, running the half-mile in 2:05.2.

DRESSER WINS HURDLES
Class B—Larry Dresser won the 120-yard low hurdles in 14 flat; Bates, in addition to winning the broad jump, was second in the 1320-yard run; Jack Clark was third in the 120-yard low hurdles. Qualifying scores—Huntington Beach, 25; Santa Ana, 18.

Class C—Bob Allen was fourth in the 660-yard run, and Gene Morrison and Ken Nielson tied for fifth in the pole vault, in addition to Jack Grandos' record-breaking 1:32.5, with a second in the 660. Qualifying scores—Long Beach, 23½; Huntington Beach, 19; Coachella, 16½; Santa Ana, 7.

Judges will determine either today or tomorrow which athletes in addition to the first-place finishers, qualified for the Southland finals in Los Angeles Saturday afternoon.

IT'S ALL BASEBALL TO TONY

Lazzeri Finds Nothing Different In National League

CHICAGO. (AP)—So far as Tony Lazzeri is concerned it's all baseball whether as handy man for the Chicago Cubs of the National league or for New York in the American league.

"I can't see any difference in the circuits," he said, making a dead-eye shot into the dressing room cupboards. "It's a little early in the season yet, but so far as I can figure it's baseball—wherever you play it."

Lazzeri has been making a pretty snappy record for himself since young Philip K. Wrigley, owner of the Cubs, got him from the Yanks five months ago.

HIRED AS COACH
Tony came to the Cubs as coach, strategist and utility second-baseman. His experience was supposed to make up for whatever might be burned out of him because he is 35 years old, but if anyone had the idea the Italian veteran was burned out he was mistaken.

Shortly after the 1938 season opened, Lazzeri had a .375 batting average, had made a dozen hits, including four homers, and had given the Cubs reliable support at third and shortstop. He is in the pink of condition and stands ready for anything.

What difference does it make if he is playing in the American or National league? He insists it is the same to him, and that goes for the baseballs and for the guys who throw 'em.

"Is there a difference between American and National league baseballs?" He repeated the question. "I didn't know it. You hit 'em all alike."

The reporter touched on the rumor the American league "rabbit ball" favors the pitcher and the National league ball, the batter. Just a slight difference in hid thickness and stitching, you see.

MORE LATER
Tony switched to the left cheek and blinked.

"It's all news to me," he insisted solemnly. "There may be a difference but if there is I haven't found it out—it's all baseball wherever it is."

That looked like the final score, but as one parting shot Tony made one suggestion.

"I'll tell you," he said, "you might ask me again in another month after we've played a few more teams. I can tell better then if there is any difference in anything."

'LEFTY' GROVE HURLS 4-3 WIN FOR 6TH

Desautels' Double Gives Club Clean Sweep Over Solons

By SID FEDER
Associated Press Sports Writer

It was a long time coming, but the way things are moving now, it begins to look like the benevolent Mr. Tom Yawkey finally has hit the jackpot after tossing all those millions into his Boston Red Sox.

Heading westward for their first swing 'round the circuit, the Gold Hose Mr. Yawkey put together by turning over huge wads of cash to Connie Mack and various other ivory dealers here and there, are in first place in the American league and sporting an eight-game winning streak that shows no signs of letting up.

YAWKEY CALLED 'MIDAS'
So far this spring, everything "Midas" Yawkey has touched over the past several seasons is turning to gold all at once. Every one's doing his part in the drive. Five of the regulars are hitting better than .300; the pitchers are clicking.

The chief factors in the recent successes are the aging but still agile left arm known as Robert Moses Grove, and the long range cannon known as James Emory Fox. Both graduates of the University of Mack (Shibe Park, Philadelphia). The greying Grove and the failing Fox are the real business again after several seasons of disappointing the boys and girls.

Take Lefty, for instance. He was 38 last year March, a baseball age that corresponds to an address in the old men's home. He hasn't his speed any more, but he's pitching with his stuff and his brains and is the No. 1 American league flinger with six straight victories and no defeats.

He chalked up No. 6 yesterday by a 4-3 margin over the Washington Senators, and is well on the road to his most successful campaign since his 31 game championship year back in 1931.

Then there's Fox. What he's doing to American league pitchers this season is a caution. To date, he's hitting .364, and is the big league's leading home run hitter with eight-round trip wallops. But the most amazing product of his pouncing is 39 runs driven in in 23 games, nearly twice as many as anyone else in either league.

If he could keep up his present pace, he'd have batted about 260 across by the end of the season. (The major league record is only 190.)

Through yesterday's defeat, the Senators dropped to fourth place in the league standings, and the Yankees and Indians, whose games with Philadelphia and Chicago were rained out, advanced to a tie for second. In the only other American league game, the St. Louis Browns beat the Tigers, 4-1, in a tilt cut short by rain.

The Chicago Cubs dropped their second overtime decision in a row to the Pittsburgh Pirates, with Johnny Dickshot's single in the 11th send up the winning run across for a 4-3 Buc victory. The Cardinals also went into overtime before nipping the Cincinnati Reds, 12-11, on Pepper Martin's pinch single in the tenth.

Parker, Penn Bag Golf With 77-10-67
George Parker and William Penn, carding a 77-10-67, captured low-ball medal play for men golfers at the Santa Ana Country club over the week-end. Jack Robertson of Huntington Beach and C. P. Boyer were runners-up, 74-5-69.

BALTIMORE BOY WINS
AGUA CALIENTE, Mex. (AP)—Baltimore Boy won the $1200 added endurance race over a mile and half yesterday and set a new track record doing it. He covered the distance in 2:24.5.

Here's Whale Of Fish Yarn!
SANTA MONICA. (AP)—It was nearly a whale of a fish story that Eddie Klee told today. And every ounce of it was true.

Klee was dangleing a line from the Santa Monica rod and reel club's barge at Malibu yesterday when he made a strike. With the barge captain, he transferred to a rowboat. For two hours and 13 minutes he struggled to land his catch.

It was worth the effort—a 484-pound giant black sea bass, or jewfish.

Spectacular Wedding Has Famous Ranch Setting

The young people have inspired many charming social affairs recently since their formal announcement of their betrothal was made by the bride's aunt, Mrs. James L. Allen. She has made her home with Judge and Mrs. Allen and with Mr. and Mrs. F. Meisel, another aunt and uncle, for many years.

Howard Faccou is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Faccou of Santa Ana.

Beautiful decorations had been arranged for the original cause of celebration, with elaborate white and silver table ornaments for the refreshment course that had been planned by the Sorensons' four children, Kenneth, Walter, Arlene, and Soren, Jr. The latter quartet also surprised their parents, married 25 years ago in Denmark, Wis., with a complete new set of furnishings for their livingroom.

WEEKLY BOOK REVIEW

By MOLLY HARVEY

Editor's Note: This is one of a series of weekly book reviews of current publications which will appear each Monday in The Journal

"Red Star Over China," by Edgar Snow.

(Courtesy Santa Ana Public Library)

Edgar Snow was the first "foreign devil" to visit that fantastic state within a state, the Soviet territory in Northwest China. His resulting book runs to 449 pages, packed with interest and information and prophecy. "Red Star Over China" was completed before the outbreak of Japan's undeclared war on China, yet subsequent events have fulfilled Mr. Snow's predictions in a way that is almost uncanny.

Despite the bitter antagonism of class warfare and passive resistance between the Reds and the Central Government the Reds realized "that the fight for national survival was paramount, and must be conducted even at the expense of abandoning the internal struggle over the future of the country."

Granting that the Chinese Reds have made some mistakes, the author feels that they have aroused the millions of rural China to take responsibility in demanding their social and economic rights, and that they are combating the finality and passiveness which has been the by-product of Taoism and Confucianism. The Red Army is the poor people's army, and as it has moved from one village to another has received the whole-hearted support of the peasants. The Red Army is the poor people's army, and as it has moved from one village to another has received the whole-hearted support of the peasants.

In place of a lot of hard bitten outlaws and malcontents, Mr. Snow shows that the great mass of the Red soldiery was made up of young peasants and workers who believed themselves to be fighting for their homes, their lands and their country. The average age was nineteen, many of the "old Reds," veterans of many battles, having enlisted at the age of fifteen or sixteen. Their spirit was superb, and their ability to withstand hardship almost incredible. "Nobody could see these heroic young lives without feeling that man in China is not born rotten, but with infinite possibilities."

Together this is one of the most stimulating books which has yet been written about modern China. Certain chapters, such as those describing the author's visit with Mao Tse-tung, Soviet strong man valued at $250,000 by the National government, and the story of the Red's 6000 mile trek from Southern Fukien to their present headquarters in North-west Shensi, would alone justify the publication of the book.

There are many photographs which do much to enlist sympathy. Mr. Snow shows consistently that the people of Red China are alert, intelligent, and kindly. The reader is prepared when Mr. Snow concludes, "The movement for social revolution in China may suffer defeats, may make wide changes in tactics to fit immediate necessities and may even for a period be submerged or forced underground, but it will not eventually fail, because the basic conditions which have given it birth carry within themselves the dynamic necessity for its triumph."

HORTON GARDEN DELIGHTS STUDY CLUB

The lovely garden setting of the J. C. Horton home on North Park boulevard was enjoyed fully by members of the Garden Study Club and their guests Friday. So beautifully it is planned and developed that the garden-conscious guests found it hard to believe that it is less than a year old.

Mrs. R. L. Bisby, Mrs. Carl Strock, Mrs. William Gregg, and Mrs. Frank Miller assisted Mrs. Horton in serving a delicious luncheon, and Mrs. Frank Harwood presided over a brief business session.

Buchanans Are Feted By Hundreds

More than 300 friends united to honor the Rev. and Mrs. Walter Scott Buchanan at a formal reception on the occasion of their 36th wedding anniversary, an event of Saturday, May 14. The Rev. Mr. Buchanan has been pastor of the First Christian church of Santa Ana for the past 10 years, and included among the scores of loyal parishioners present at the elaborate affair were city officials, members of the local Ministerial association, and many other distinguished persons.

A beautiful arch was arranged at the entrance to the church, educational building, banked with orange blossoms, and suspending two lovely silver bells. Many baskets of beautiful flowers made a background for the receiving line, in which stood the honor guests, with Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Knights, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Gerard and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Morrison. Mrs. Buchanan looked particularly charming in a gown of black lace, with a corsage of orchids and lilies of the valley presented her by the committee in charge of the evening's arrangements.

To one side of the Buchanans stood the Rev. and Mrs. George A. Miller of Long Beach, particularly honored because it was the Rev. Mr. Miller who married the couple 36 years ago. Since that ceremony in Walton, Ky., in 1902, the Rev. Mr. Buchanan has held pastorates in Walton, Ky.; Lake Charles, La.; Marion, Ind.; Johnston City, Tenn.; Washington, D. C.; Union City, Ind.; Canton, Ohio; Phoenix, Ariz.; Pittsburgh, Pa., and Los Angeles.

In recognition of their pastor's varied and interesting life, the committee of the evening, headed by Mrs. Kenneth Loughton, planned a particularly appropriate program, a clever pageant of the life of the Rev. and Mrs. Buchanan, presented by Mrs. J. E. Braden in original verses. Participating in various scenes depicting outstanding events in their lives were the babies of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hill and Mr. and Mrs. Hugert Riggan, Lavonne Kiser and Jackie Morrison as children, followed by Charles Hill and A. W. Gerrard, who enacted the ordination; Ruth Rimmel and Charles Hill, who portrayed the couple as sweethearts, and, finally, the Buchanans themselves as of today.

Musical numbers of great charm were presented by Marilyn Paxton, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Rogers, Miss Bernice Taylor, R. S. Briggs, Nelson Rogers, Mrs. R. S. Briggs, Jack Ruppels, Mrs. R. S. Briggs, Frank Pierce and G. Willard Bassett.

Climax to the program came with presentation of a handsome radio to the Buchanans by Paul Neff on behalf of the congregation. This was followed by a refreshment course, of which the outstanding feature was a towering wedding cake.

Heading committees which arranged the impressive affair were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Loughton, Mr. and Mrs. R. Weisgerber and Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Steen. Lewis Williams presided as master of ceremonies over the entire affair.

The charming home of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Turton on Martha Lane, was the scene of a gay red, white and blue party Saturday night. Bridge was played at small tables, with refreshments served around the large dining table at the close of the evening.

Tiny blue wooden rooster place cards, made by Mr. Turton, marked each guest's place. White china rooster vases in the center of the table were filled with red flowers, and the menu was carried out in red and white. Handmade tallies in the form of red roosters were the work of Mrs. Turton.

Prizes for high score went to Coker Rathbone and Mrs. Francis Jacoby, while prizes for low score went to Leslie Echols and Mrs. Lloyd Banks. Mr. Banks was awarded the galloping prize. Present for the evening were the Mesdames Coker Rathbone, Leslie Echols, George Lippincott, Lloyd Banks, Francis Jacoby and the hosts.

I have just had the pleasure of reading Julia Boynton Green's latest book, "Noonmark."

Other books by Mrs. Green are "Line and Interline" and "This Enchanting Coast."

Why should we use a hundred muscles
To cultivate one ugly frown—
When all it really takes is twenty
To bring the god of laughter down.

I LOVE THIS ROOM
I love this room . . . I love this rug of blue
Traced with strange figures,
Ivory, tan, and rose,
Well-worn, but quite unfaded
Thanks to those
Old craftsmen and the cunning
Dyes they knew.

Small feet have taken toll of its rich pile.
Here, by the fireplace, sundry
Scattered marks
Prove that from glowing logs the
Living sparks
Lay smoldering, unnoticed for
A while.

The twilight deepens. Now a rosy bloom
Touches a cushion here, a curtain there,
A row of books, my setter's
Snowy hair,
A vase, a flower. Oh, I love this room.
—Poets of the Western Scene.

THE PROVIDER
There's bread in the cupboard,
There's meat on the shelf;
There's a pipe for my man
There are sweets for myself.

There's breadcloth for him
And I've silk for a frock;
There is fruit on the vine
And corn in the shock.

His wallet is stuffed,
And no lack in my purse;
But, oh, in my heart
There's a want that is worse!

There's a hound for the tramps
And a puss for the mouse;
But what for the shy thoughts
That range in my house?

There's a cow in the byre
And a roan in the stall;
But the crudest need
He sees not at all.

A kiss with the loaf . . .
The touch of his hand . . .
The feel of his arm . . .
But . . . he can't understand!
—Julia Boynton Green, "Noonmark."

PARTY UNIQUE

The charming home of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Turton on Martha Lane, was the scene of a gay red, white and blue party Saturday night. Bridge was played at small tables, with refreshments served around the large dining table at the close of the evening.

Tiny blue wooden rooster place cards, made by Mr. Turton, marked each guest's place. White china rooster vases in the center of the table were filled with red flowers, and the menu was carried out in red and white. Handmade tallies in the form of red roosters were the work of Mrs. Turton.

Prizes for high score went to Coker Rathbone and Mrs. Francis Jacoby, while prizes for low score went to Leslie Echols and Mrs. Lloyd Banks. Mr. Banks was awarded the galloping prize. Present for the evening were the Mesdames Coker Rathbone, Leslie Echols, George Lippincott, Lloyd Banks, Francis Jacoby and the hosts.
